Dear Dr. Mohamed Elsadek,

I hope you are doing well!!!

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you to write a Short Communication based on your previous article entitled “Psycho-physiological responses to plant variegation as measured through eye movement, self-reported emotion and cerebral activity.” for consideration and publication in forth coming issue of Journal of Botanical Science.

You can submit the Research, Review, Clinical/medical Image, mini reviews, Letters to the Editor, etc. as per your expertise towards the journal.

All the published articles will get indexed in Cite Factor, DOAJ, CAS and Google Scholar

You can submit manuscript at: <http://www.editorialmanager.com/biobiogroup/default.aspx> or at botanicalsci@rroj.com

We would like to appreciate receiving the submission of your articles on May 20, 2016 as it would enable for us to release the issue within the stipulated time.

Kindly, let me know as soon as possible if you are interested in submitting a manuscript for our journal issue.

It is an opportunity to take part in and to influence future trends in one of the fastest growing fields of research. If this time is not feasible for you then kindly let us know your feasible time to contribute towards the journal.

We will be looking forward to hear a positive response from you soon.

Have a great & Healthy day ahead!!
With Kind Regards,

Sincerely,
Stella Maris
